D on D Returns!

After a forced absence when I had to move out of my rental and find somewhere else to live, the only place available was in Cowes!

The sea change was nice, especially when it was warm, though sand in the crack was a side effect I hadn't planned on. As soon as winter hit it was bloody freezing down there, so a return to a warmer Monbulk was very timely.

But I digress, now it's time to get stuck into...err..I mean analyse how the footy tipping has been going in my absence.

A BIG THANK YOU TO ARTIE AND MAREE

The footy tipping was superbly handled by Artie and Maree and they kept the ship afloat while I was away as best they could. The only grizzle was old Don reckoned the printing was too small. Put your goggles on Don!

COL STILL LEADING!

How good is Col going? After quietly knocking on the door to the top spot over the first 4 rounds he pinched top spot in round 5 and hasn't looked back. Maybe this year is your year at last Col?

There is still a few who have their eyes on the top spot and with 9 rounds to go it is shaping as a nail biting finish.

LOCAL FOOTY

Monbulk travelled to Pakenham last week and had a fairly comfortable win. This week Monbulk has a bye, even though I moved back to Monbulk to support them they won't be back at home until 9th July when they take on Mt Evelyn, going to ladder leader Narre Warren after the bye. Monbulk currently sit a game clear 4th on the ladder.

JOKES OF THE WEEK

Q: How many telemarketers does it take to change a light bulb?

A: Only one, but he has to do it while you are eating dinner.

I was visiting my son the other night when I asked if I could borrow a newspaper.

"Dad, this is the 21st century," he said. "I don't waste my money on newspapers. But if you like, you can borrow my iPad."

I can tell you this: That spider never knew what hit him.

"First, the doctor told me the good news. He said that I was going to have a disease named after me."

Two old friends, Bill and Bob, lived for football. Then one day Bill up and died, leaving Bob inconsolable. A few weeks later Bob heard someone calling his name. He looked up. Standing on a cloud was his old pal.

"Bob," Bill called down, "I have good news and bad. The good news is they play football in Heaven!"

"Great," said Bob. "What's the bad news?"

"You've been named at full forward this Saturday!"

INTERVIEW

It was good to catch up with everyone last Friday night and the one man who has a lot to say (read always) is Case, so I thought I should check how things have been. Also, if you get the chance, ask Case to sing the Nar Nar Goon footy theme song, he only knows the first verse but well worth a listen.

D on D: G'day Case, how are you going?

C: Bloody cold, let's stand out of the wind, that's better.

D on D: AJ magpie would not be liking this weather?

C: I spoke with him last night and his bill was chattering!

D on D: Poor bugger, what did he have to say?

C: He wanted to know if some of his tribe could go in the footy tipping.

D on D: That can be up to 50 birds!

C: No, only his closest mates, DJ, FJ, CJ and the sadly named BJ.

D on D: Oh, ok, can they afford it?

C: Yep, he reckons they are all cashed up.

D on D: I'd have to check with Artie but it should be ok. We already have one magpie and a duck for gods sake in the tipping.

C: Yeah, but that duck is useless, couldn't tip a winner to save himself.

D on D: He's on the same points as me Case!.

C: Oh..ummm...do you know why ducks have feathers?

D on D: I ask the questions Case but no, I don't know.

C: To hide their butt quack!

D on D: Ha ha, makes sense.

C: Anyway, when AJ wins the tipping this year he can afford to put all his mates in.

D on D: I think Col might have something to say about that.

C: Who?

D on D: Never mind Case, thanks for your time.
