Reggie contemplates whether a rat's or is in fact worth giving, and so completely misses the point of Thelma's outburst.

A CHANGE AT THE TOP!

With Col getting 6 and Craig getting 7 we have a new leader by the barest of margins.

Col will have to knuckle down and just pick winners if he wants to get up top again, I'm sure he can.

With the draw on Friday night it put paid to any chance of getting 9 correct but Case, Layton, Peter M, Ron Rhodes, Sharon and Tracey all got 8 correct, not a bad effort at all, especially Sharon, she took off to Germany and filled the remaining games to season end before she left. She went better than when she put them on week by week...)

LOCAL FOOTY

Monbulk hosted Woori Yallock last weekend and unfortunately recorded a loss, going down by 13 points.

Another inaccurate day with Monbulk kicking 7.18. They head off to 3rd placed Wandin this Saturday and hopefully have their kicking boots on to bring home a win, though a tough ask at the kennel.

See the notice board for details of the Tradies Day coming up on the 6th August, always a great day and the comedian Dave O'Neill will be performing. I wonder if he realises he has some big shoes to fill after Case had been providing the entertainment very successfully the past years.

JOKES OF THE WEEK

I got a new stick deodorant today. The instructions said: Remove cap and push up bottom. I can barely walk, but when I fart, the room smells lovely.

Went swimming today. Took a pee in the deep end. Lifeguard noticed. Blew his frikking whistle so loud I almost fell in.

At breakfast, a man asked his wife: "What would you do if you won the lottery?" She replied, "I'd take half, and then leave you." Great," he said "I won $12 yesterday. Here's $6. Stay in touch.

AT SOME POINT IN LIFE, EVERYONE HAS GAMBLLED ON A FART AND LOST.

Two cows are grazing in a field. One cow says to the other, "You ever worry about that mad cow disease?" The other cow says, "Why would I care? I'm a helicopter!"

I told my physio therapist that I broke my arm in two places. He told me to stop going to those places.

They all laughed when I said I wanted to be a comedian. Well, they're not laughing now!

INTERVIEW

Hearing Col's insights last week left me feeling like he had it in the bag but Craig has surprised us all and pulled a rabbit out of his ...err..ummm.. hat!

Thought I better speak to him.

D on D: G'day Craig, how are you going?

C: Good Dave, long time no see. Whats happening?

D on D: I want to speak to you about the footy tipping.

C: What footy tipping.

D on D: The RSL footy tipping.

C: What about it?

D on D: How you feel about hitting the lead with 4 rounds to go.

C: Hitting the what now?

D on D: Hitting the lead, you are in front, leading, head of the pack!

C: Strewth, I didn't even know I was in it. Bloody Dad.

D on D: Yep, you are all paid up and heading for a big prize.

C: Oh, I see. How much to go in it?

D on D: $30, your dad has already paid it.

C: Ok. I like to pay my own way so if I give you $30 you can give dad his 30 back?

D on D: I suppose so.

C: Ok, here you go.

D on D: Thanks, I'll let Artie know. Why do you want to pay?

C: Then I get the prize.

D on D: You've got 119 tips correct. How many of them did you pick?

C: Well..ummm...none.

D on D: Is that fair?

C: I'll explain it to dad.

D on D: Good luck with that.

C: Is AJ Magpie in it?

D on D: Yep.

C: He won a bit last year, I'll speak to him about how much he actually got.

D on D: Good luck! Thanks Craig.
